

Pianist Agustin Muriago has performed throughout the United States, Spain, China, Brazil, and his native Argentina. He has recorded for the Acte Préalable label and for NPR affiliates. He holds degrees in piano performance from The Hartt School (DMA), New York University (MM), and Rowan University (BM summa cum laude).

Dr. Muriago is on the piano faculty at Kansas State University, where he coordinates the Master of Music in Piano Pedagogy degree in addition to teaching group and private lessons. Prior to his appointment at K-State, he served on the faculties of The Hartt School Community Division and New York University.

www.agustinmuriago.com